Hearing No.: 03 337 495

Dear Mr. Genevier:

Your rehearing request indicated that you disagree with the way in which the regulations were applied in making the decision in your case. Because the regulations applied in the decision in your case are consistent with state policy, your rehearing request was denied on March 27, 2003.

If you are dissatisfied with this decision, you may petition for Superior Court review of the entire proceedings. (This is provided for under Section 10962 of the Welfare and Institutions Code which refers to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Copies of these statutes are enclosed for your reference.) You will be entitled to reasonable attorney fees and costs if the court decides the case in your favor.

We call your attention to the fact that a petition for court review must be filed within one year after you receive this letter. You may contact your nearest Legal Aid Office for assistance.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Campbell
